Debtor. Poughkeepsie, NY
-----X July 27, 2010

TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

BEFORE THE HONORABLE CECELIA G. MORRIS
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT JUDGE

APPEARANCES:

For Mr. Fraleigh: ANDREA B. MALIN, ESQ.
Genova & Malin

MR. BRIAN FRALEIGH

For Debtor: DONNA MARIE FRALEIGH
Pro se

MR. CHRISTOPHER SEKUL

Transcriptionist: KAREN SCHMIEDER, CSR, RDR
Schmieder & Meister, Inc.

Proceedings recorded by electronic sound recording;
transcript produced by transcription service.

1 THE COURT: 10-36282, Donna Marie
2 Fraleigh.

3 MS. MALIN: Fraleigh, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Fraleigh.

5 MS. MALIN: Your Honor, it's Andrea
6 B. Malin, with the firm of Genova & Malin,
7 appearing on behalf of Mr. Fraleigh, who is 8 coming to counsel table.

9 THE COURT: And you are Miss
10 Fraleigh?

11 MS. FRALEIGH: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And with you is?

13 MS. FRALEIGH: Is Mr. Sekul, my 14 boyfriend.

15 THE COURT: Raise your right hands,
16 both of you. Do you solemnly swear the 17 testimony you're about to give is the truth,
18 the whole truth and nothing but the truth,
19 so help you God?

20 MS. FRALEIGH: Yes.

21 MR. SEKUL: Yes.

22 THE COURT: State your full name.

23 MS. FRALEIGH: Donna Marie
24 Fraleigh.

25 MR. SEKUL: Christopher Peter

1           Sekul.

2                   THE COURT:   And your address,
3           please.

4                   MS. FRALEIGH:   30 Battenfeld Road,
5           Milan, New York 12571.

6                   THE COURT:   Okay.   And Miss Malin
7           has asked for what's called a 2004 exam, and 8           that is to find out about finances.   And I
9           understand that you put in opposition to 10          that, saying because he's not listed as a
11          creditor that he has no right to object to 12          anything in the bankruptcy.

13                  MS. FRALEIGH:   Yes, I did, Your 14          Honor.

15                  THE COURT:   But you also listed on 16          there his girlfriend, right?

17                  MS. FRALEIGH:   Yes.

18                  THE COURT:   Which might be an 19          attempt to collect from him.   And you've 20          also commingled a lot of your funds with 21          your boyfriend, is that correct?

22                  MS. FRALEIGH:   Correct.

23                  THE COURT:   I'm going to give the 24          2004 exam, but I'm going to talk to all
25          three of you right now.   Are there any

1 children in this?

2 MS. FRALEIGH: Yes, I have two
3 daughters.

4 THE COURT: How old are they?

5 MS. FRALEIGH: Seventeen.

6 THE COURT: All right, guys, start
7 working it out. I have little patience with 8 fighting and duelling when there are
9 children, so you need to get a lawyer.

10 MS. FRALEIGH: Your Honor, I don't
11 have money to get a lawyer.

12 THE COURT: You need a lawyer. I'm 13 telling you right now you need a lawyer. If 14 you don't get a lawyer, there's a chance
15 that they are going to win hands down,
16 because this is difficult to do, and they 17 are entitled to find out about your 18 finances.

19 And yours too, because they are
20 commingled, they get to find out about it.

21 MS. FRALEIGH: Excuse me, Your
22 Honor, in the examination, their scope is 23 wide --

24 THE COURT: Very wide. It's huge.

25 MS. FRALEIGH: But this is all an

1 attempt -- it has been, they have got me
2 to --

3 THE COURT: That's what you've
4 said, but you don't have a lawyer here to 5 get it in front of me correctly. I
6 understand what you're saying, it's just
7 your word. That becomes part of a trial.

8 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay, well, how --
9 can I have at least a lot more time to see
10 if I can come up with money to get a lawyer?
11 That's why I'm doing the bankruptcy.

12 THE COURT: Not a lot more time.
13 I'll give you a little bit of time, but not 14 a lot more time. But you're going to have 15 to go to the exam.

16 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay, well, in the
17 exam, can we have it at least someplace
18 other than their office?

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 MS. MALIN: I'll have it here in 21 the Court, Your Honor. I don't know where 22 else we'd have it.

23 THE COURT: We can have it in
24 Court. I'll let you have it in the Court.
25 I rarely let it happen in the Court, but you

1 can have it in the Court.

2 MS. MALIN: I just might, though,
3 Your Honor, to direct this, there has
4 already been a 2004 order entered --

5 THE COURT: I understand.

6 MS. MALIN: -- demanding that she
7 have documents to us by yesterday, which she 8 didn't have.

9 THE COURT: Right. Okay, you got
10 to get all the documents to them.

11 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay, well --

12 MS. MALIN: And also, excuse me,
13 July 30th is the examination that you had to 14 have her come to our office --

15 THE COURT: We can extend that.
16 Tell me about your documents. You got to 17 get them to her.

18 MS. FRALEIGH: Right. Well, some 19 of the documents that they listed have 20 already been supplied to the Trustee, so I
21 wasn't sure if I still had to --

22 THE COURT: Yes, you do. This is 23 totally different.

24 MS. FRALEIGH: And excuse me, one
25 second, I had some notes.

1 THE COURT: Okay, sure.

2 MS. FRALEIGH: I had some questions
3 about the documentation they were
4 requesting --

5 THE COURT: That's not for me to
6 decide. That's why you need a lawyer. I
7 don't decide this stuff on the fly. If
8 there's a document -- 2004 exams -- and I
9 know 2004 is a shorthand, it means Rule 2004
10 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules, and
11 basically it says it's a fishing expedition.
12 Case law has said it's a fishing expedition,
13 and that's what she can do.

14 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay.

15 THE COURT: But you know, you all
16 need to get this settled.

17 MS. FRALEIGH: I'd love to.

18 THE COURT: I'm not asking for a
19 response. This is me lecturing, and it's 20 addressed to both of you as well as it's 21 addressed to you. And you are on really
22 precarious grounds without a lawyer. This
23 is now a lawsuit within your bankruptcy.
24 That's different -- no, it's not, we're all
25 on 2004, so it's not a lawsuit.

1 MS. MALIN: Not yet.

2 THE COURT: But you're about to
3 possibly lose the benefit of bankruptcy
4 because of this lawsuit, and I can't sit up
5 here and tell you how to do that. You need
6 a lawyer to help you, unless you're really
7 proficient in reading things in the
8 bankruptcy. So that's what I'm here to tell
9 you. And you said you have some doubts
10 about what they are asking for?

11 MS. FRALEIGH: I have a lot of 12 doubts, and I have a lot of doubts about --

13 THE COURT: Give me an example.

14 MS. FRALEIGH: They are asking for 15 all insurance --

16 THE COURT: Get your notes.

17 MS. MALIN: I think we asked for 18 insurance policies, Your Honor, because what
19 we're trying to determine is what vehicles
20 are actually owned by the debtor, and also 21 to see whether or not there are other assets
22 that were not revealed on her bankruptcy
23 petition --

24 THE COURT: That's a legit
25 question. That's a legitimate question.

1 MS. FRALEIGH: Insurance policies
2 meaning what? I have disability insurance,
3 health insurance, car insurance.
4 Everything? Life insurance?

5 THE COURT: You want everything?

6 MS. FRALEIGH: You know, there's 7 vast --

8 MS. MALIN: I would like to see the 9 life insurance policy, I would like to see
10 the automobile policy. I would like to see
11 a homeowner's policy.

12 THE COURT: Homeowner's,
13 automobile. Why do you want life?

14 MS. MALIN: Life insurance, if
15 there is actually a cash value of the life
16 insurance policy it would be an asset of the 17 estate.

18 THE COURT: Life insurance is
19 legitimate. That's legitimate.

20 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay, I don't own a
21 home, so.

22 THE COURT: Okay, so then you just
23 say I don't own a home. You just give the 24 insurance policies.

25 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay.

1 MS. MALIN: Well, renter's policy,
2 I do believe she may have one of those.

3 MS. FRALEIGH: I don't. Like you
4 said, if I don't have it, then --

5 THE COURT: If you don't have them,
6 you don't have them. You don't try to
7 manufacture stuff you don't have. But you
8 need to say back in writing I don't have
9 this, I don't have that, I don't have this.

10 MS. MALIN: I think though, Your
11 Honor, just to make it clear for the record
12 is that there is a 2004 order demanding
13 certain documents, and I don't want that to 14 be said now that she comes to the 2004 exam
15 and says well, I couldn't find them, I
16 couldn't find them.

17 THE COURT: No, you have to do that
18 in writing back.

19 MS. MALIN: But I think she --

20 THE COURT: You've been given it in
21 writing; you've got to give it in writing
22 back. Here is the insurance policy; I don't 23 have that insurance policy that you asked
24 for.

25 MS. MALIN: I think she needs to --

1 THE COURT: This is Federal Court.
2 This is not TV Court. This is not small
3 claims court. This is Federal Court.

4 MS. FRALEIGH: I understand that.

5 THE COURT: Okay, so Federal Court
6 means you go through them; if they've asked
7 for something in writing, you've got to 8 respond in writing.

9 MS. MALIN: I think she should be
10 advised maybe too, Your Honor, of her
11 affirmative duty under the United States
12 Bankruptcy Court to produce documents that
13 may not be in her actual possession but well
14 within her ability to obtain those documents
15 based on many --

16 THE COURT: Miss Malin, we're going
17 to fight that battle when you get to that 18 point.

19 MS. MALIN: Okay.

20 THE COURT: We're not going to
21 fight that battle until we get there.

22 MS. MALIN: If I might --

23 THE COURT: She's not going to pay
24 money to go get something until we have to.

25 MS. MALIN: That's fine.

1                   THE COURT: I want you all talking.
2                   I've had enough of this, you all go talk.
3                   This is --

4                   MS. MALIN: I understand, Your 5                   Honor, but this goes beyond, because this 6                   really does seek to the integrity of the 7                   Court. And whether or not there's a child
8                   support issue, that's not really the issue.
9                   The children are being supported. The 10                  children are not being injured. The support
11                  court is taking care of that, the Family
12                  Court is well involved in this matter and 13                  has been for a long period of time.

14                  What this is is a strike at the 15                  integrity of the Court, and they really need 16                  to come forward and come forth with the 17                  information --

18                  THE COURT: Yes, you've got to have
19                  it.

20                  MS. MALIN: -- that's the 21                  integrity of the system.

22                  THE COURT: You've got to have it.

23                  MS. MALIN: So if I could submit an 24                  order, what I would do is submit an amended
25                  order, if this Court is so okay with that,

1 with the 2004 exam being put off for two
2 weeks, put them both into that order and
3 give them a week to get the documents or two
4 weeks to get the documents and three weeks
5 for the exam.

6 THE COURT: Okay, no, how much time
7 do you need?

8 MS. FRALEIGH: As much time as
9 you're willing to give me.

10 THE COURT: No, I'm not willing to
11 give you a long time. I'm not giving you a 12 long time. This is just information. The 13 information doesn't get any better --

14 MS. FRALEIGH: I know, but --

15 THE COURT: -- three weeks out,
16 six weeks out.

17 MS. FRALEIGH: But the time -- I
18 work full time, I'm trying to raise two 19 kids. I have a hard time taking time off of 20 work to be in Court --

21 THE COURT: We understand that.

22 MS. FRALEIGH: -- and between here
23 and support court --

24 THE COURT: We understand.

25 MS. FRALEIGH: He gets free legal

1           counsel, I don't. I have to try to --

2                   THE COURT: You don't know that,
3           and I will ask that question when we come
4           there.

5                   Okay, are you being paid, Miss
6           Malin?

7                   MS. MALIN: I will be paid, yes;
8           I'm billing at an hourly rate.

9                   THE COURT: What's your hourly
10          rate?

11                  MS. MALIN: $300.

12                  THE COURT: How much?

13                  MS. MALIN: 300.

14                  THE COURT: $300 an hour.

15                  MR. SEKUL: Your Honor, if I may,
16          other than just her word, as well, can we 17          also ask for proof of that --

18                  THE COURT: No, because her word,
19          she's an attorney.

20                  MR. SEKUL: She's an officer of the 21          Court?

22                  THE COURT: Let me explain
23          something, she's not only an officer of the 24          Court. She appears in front of this Court,
25          she knows if she lies to me she's got a lot

1 of problems.

2 MR. SEKUL: Right, and I
3 understand, I was just asking for proof,
4 given the fact that we're asked for the 5 proof in writing.

6 THE COURT: She's billing it.

7 MR. SEKUL: Very well.

8 MS. MALIN: Your Honor, quite
9 frankly speaking --

10 THE COURT: Enough, Miss Malin.

11 MS. MALIN: But if we --

12 THE COURT: Enough, Miss Malin.

13 MS. MALIN: No, just set a date and 14 a time and let's get a new order.

15 THE COURT: Well, I'm talking about
16 it.

17 MS. FRALEIGH: Your Honor, I'm more
18 than willing to speak to Mr. Fraleigh --

19 THE COURT: No, you don't. You've
20 got to speak to his lawyer.

21 MS. FRALEIGH: Okay.

22 THE COURT: You can't speak to him.
23 You've got to speak to his lawyer.

24 MS. FRALEIGH: Well, I'm more than 25 willing to speak to his lawyer. This is all

1 over a thousand dollars, overpayment of 2 child support, and I get next to nothing in
3 child support, which is why I had to declare
4 bankruptcy.

5 THE COURT: I'm not here to try
6 this case. I'm here to set time frames.

7 When within the next month, when
8 can you have this deposition? I understand
9 you work; we all work.

10 MS. FRALEIGH: I guess in a month's 11 time would be great.

12 THE COURT: That didn't help me.

13 MS. FRALEIGH: Can we do it on a --

14 THE COURT: Tell me the day.

15 MR. SEKUL: 30 days from today?

16 MS. FRALEIGH: -- a Tuesday, so I
17 can't miss work?

18 MS. MALIN: I can't do it Tuesday.

19 THE COURT: Of course she can't do
20 it Tuesday, she's in Court with me.

21 MS. MALIN: Wednesday is not
22 possible either.

23 THE COURT: Yes, because she's in
24 Court.

25 MS. FRALEIGH: Those are my days

1 off. How about Thursday?

2 THE COURT: Okay, time out. What
3 day am I out on Tuesday?

4 THE CLERK: August 24th.

5 MS. MALIN: The only problem I have
6 with that, Your Honor, is you've extended my 7 time to file a complaint but only until 8 October. And if I can have a further
9 extension, if I'm going to go out that far.

10 THE COURT: When is the other one
11 I'm off? That's the only other day? All
12 right --

13 MS. MALIN: I can do it on a
14 Thursday, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: That's fine -- well,
16 no, her weeks are Tuesday -- she just said a
17 Thursday is fine.

18 MS. FRALEIGH: Thursday, because my 19 days off are changing at the end of the 20 month to Wednesday/Thursday.

21 THE COURT: But for the month of 22 August when are you off?

23 MS. FRALEIGH: It will be
24 Wednesday/Thursday by the end of the month.
25 In like a week they change.

1 THE COURT: Okay, so it changes to
2 Thursday, okay, so we can have it August the 3 19th?

4 MS. FRALEIGH: Can we do it one
5 week after that?

6 MS. MALIN: Your Honor, if she'll
7 agree to extend my time --

8 THE COURT: August the 19th,
9 because I'm not going to extend the time
10 into October. August the 19th. Now,
11 then --

12 MS. FRALEIGH: Here at 10:00 a.m.?

13 MS. MALIN: Here at 10:00 a.m.

14 THE COURT: Here at 10:00 a.m. Make
15 sure we have a conference room.

16 Now then, before you come to that 17 deposition, you've got to give her the 18 documents that she's asked for, and she's 19 got to have time to look at them because you
20 don't want to waste time in a deposition.
21 So by August the -- is the 13th Friday? By 22 August the 13th, you need to have all the 23 documentation -- make sure they are copies,
24 don't give her the originals -- to her
25 office of what she's asked for.

1 MS. MALIN: Now, are we going to
2 include both she and Mr. Sekul?

3 THE COURT: Absolutely, we are
4 talking both of them.

5 MS. MALIN: Okay.

6 MR. SEKUL: And at this point, Your
7 Honor, you will not grant a limitation of 8 the scope of what they are looking for?

9 THE COURT: Absolutely not.

10 MR. SEKUL: Okay.

11 THE COURT: Absolutely not. Very
12 good.

13 MS. MALIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 MR. SEKUL: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 (Whereupon, the above-captioned
16 proceedings concluded.)
